

CSE Early Research Scholars/CSE 193 Contract

The CSE Early Research Scholars Program is a selective program that requires a strong commitment from its participants. By signing this contract, you agree that you will participate fully in the program, according to the rules and responsibilities listed below.

I, (print name) _____, am a participant in the CSE Early Research Scholars program. As such, I agree:

- To participate in the ERSP program actively and fully for the full 3-quarter duration of the program. Each quarter I will register for the course associated with the ERSP program as instructed and to complete all work associated with that course,
- To work (at least) the expected number of hours weekly,
- To attend class and group meetings regularly and punctually,
- To behave professionally toward my ERSP group members and the faculty and students who comprise the research group I am placed with,
- To complete the assigned work for CSE 193 in a timely fashion, and to "pull my weight" with all assigned group projects,
- To keep an open line of communication between myself, the members of my group, and Prof. Alvarado. In particular, you must let Prof. Alvarado know if any issues arise, as soon as they arise,
- To balance my time so as to maintain success in my other courses, as well as in CSE 193/the ERSP program.
